

Telepathology in Hematopathology

Experience in Francophone
Africa

M. Raphaël, N. Hurwitz,

L. Leoncini, J. Ilunga,

B. Lebweze, F. Förster, A. Sall

Fall, B. N'Kegoum, L. Anani

AMCC, INCTR, INCa, CNES,

ALIAM, Basel University, Siena

University, Lubumbashi, Vanga

Hospital, Kinshasa, DRC, Cheikh

Anta Diop University Dakar,

Yaoundé University, CNHU-HKM,

Cotonou

EP 5.1

for Cancer Treatment and Research

Telepathology in Hematopathology

Experience in Francophone Africa

- To have access to second opinion from experts
- Support on diagnosis, training and research
- Open source software i-Path to hematologists and pathologists
- Network : AMCC, INCTR, INCa CNES in Benin.
- Significant JPEG images sent via internet
- Actually 165 cases are recorded in the Pathology francophone Africa group, 49 cases in PhD group
- adult and children cases
  - Acute and chronic Leukemias
  - Lymphoma mainly DLBCL and Burkitt
  - Carcinoma and metastasis
  - Non tumoral lesions

Telepathology in Hematopathology

Experience in Francophone Africa

- Improvement in techniques
- Rapid diagnostic confirmation
- Impact on therapeutical decision
- Usefulness in training and research